➤ THE COLLEGE AT A GLANCE:

Krishna Kanta Handique Govt. Sanskrit College (formerly named as “Assam Sanskrit College”) today is the premier institution of higher education dedicated to imparting Sanskrit teaching and learning in Assam as well as in North East India. The college was established in the year 1970 as full-fledged Sanskrit Institution imparting Sanskrit education, research and training, as per the recommendation of the Assam Sanskrit Education Committee, constituted by the Govt. of Assam in the year 1966 for examining the position of Sanskrit education and for suggesting ways and means for improvement of Sanskrit learning in the State in general.

The establishment of the college in the year 1970 had full filled long standing demand of the public. Eminent Sanskrit scholar Dr.DimbleswarSarma was the founder Principal of the college.

The college, envisaged as a full-fledged Arts College, was established under the direct management of the Govt. of Assam with a view to:

- Give a proper direction on modern lines to the Sanskrit education in the state keeping in view the mode of working of the present upgraded tools and work out a cohesion between the ‘Tol’ system and the modern system of Sanskrit education.
- Endeavour to spread Sanskrit education in all strata of society irrespective of caste, creed and religion in the true secular spirit of the Indian constitution so that there be no inhibition of any kind, psychological, political or economical, in Sanskrit studies.
- Elevate the standard of Sanskrit education in Assam so as to bring it at par with the rest of the country, and to bring about All India recognition to the Sanskrit degrees (Upadhis) conferred upon the students in the entire area.
- Enable the student community to meet the future challenges with the Sanskrit literature, language, ethics, morals and allied vocational disciplines.

The college was affiliated to the Gauhati University and the university guides and controls all the academic policies and activities of the colleges. The said university confers the Sanskrit degrees which are recognised all over India. From September, 2021, the affiliation had been modified by the Govt. of Assam and thereby allotted to the Kumar BhaskarVarma Sanskrit & Ancient Studies University.

The College receives regular grant from the Govt. of Assam. Besides, it also receives non-recurring grant from H.R.D. Govt. of India and Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, New Delhi for specific purposes.
