THE COLLEGE AT A GLANCE:

Krishna Kanta Handique Govt. Sanskrit College (formerly named as “Assam Sanskrit College”) today is the sole premier institution of higher education imparting Sanskrit teaching and learning in Assam as well as in North East India. Recently the college has been conferred with the National Assam Education Award, 2014 from CMAI, New Delhi, as the Best College Teaching Sanskrit in Assam.

The Assam Sanskrit Education Committee, constituted by the Govt. of Assam in the year 1966 for examining the position of Sanskrit education and for suggesting ways and means for improvement of Sanskrit learning in the State in general and for making recommendation towards the establishment of types of Sanskrit institution including higher institutes of learning, research and training with syllabus and curriculum of studies for the purpose in particular.

On the basis of this report the Govt. of Assam had been pleased, as a response to a long-standing demand of the public, to start the Present K.K.H. Govt. Sanskrit College in the year 1970 as a full-fledged Govt. educational institution. Eminent Sanskrit Scholar Dr. Dimbeswar Sarma was the founder Principal of the college.

The college, envisaged as a full-fledged Arts College, was established under the direct management of the Govt. of Assam with a view to:

- Give a proper direction on modern lines to the Sanskrit education in the state keeping in view the mode of working of the present upgraded tools and work out a cohesion between the Tol system and the modern system of Sanskrit education.
- Endeavour to spread Sanskrit education in all strata of society irrespective of caste, creed and religion in the true secular spirit of the Indian constitution so that there be no inhibition of any kind, psychological, political or economical, in Sanskrit studies.

- c) Elevate the standard of Sanskrit education in Assam so as to bring it at par with the rest of the country, and to bring about All India recognition to the Sanskrit degrees (Upadhis) conferred upon the students in the entire area.
- d) Enable the student community to meet the future challenges with the Sanskrit literature, language, ethics, morals and allied vocational disciplines.

The college is affiliated to the Gauhati University and the university guides and controls all the academic policies and activities of the colleges. The said university confers the Sanskrit degrees which are recognised all over India. It receives regular grant from the Govt. of Assam. Besides, it also receives non-recurring grant from H.R.D. Govt. of India and Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, New Delhi for various specific purposes.
